Transcriber's Office

February 2, 2000 LB 654, 957, 1000A

my light on is to try to get it clear, after I listened to Senator Lynch, who I thought knew what he's talking about, to get a little clearer picture of...and now obviously at the outset I didn't even understand. You're starting to make it more clear, but at the beginning it was kind of difficult to understand because it looked like it was all money that was bringing brought out, but now I'm starting to look at...I'm going to stop talking and listen, because I think you have your light on. Maybe you can shed some light on this. Thank you.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Well, I think this particular bill and the amendment that goes with it is really no problem within DAS. It mostly consists of in DAS and it consists of revolving funds. I think Senator Lynch was probably misunderstood. He was talking about the cigarette tax and LB 309. That is in another bill. And he mentioned that, but it is in another bill and it's not related to this, and that might have got a little bit of confusion. But...

SENATOR CUDABACK: Time.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: ...he understands that's another bill that will be...

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Wehrbein and Senator Vrtiska.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: The other one.

SENATOR VRTISKA: I understand (inaudible).

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: And so...so...

SENATOR CUDABACK: Thank you, Senator Wehrbein. Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, some items, if I may.

SENATOR CUDABACK: Items for the record.

CLERK: Thank you. New A bill, Mr. President, LB 1000A by Senator Schrock. (Read LB 1000A by title for the first time.) Senator Dierks has selected LB 957 as the...as one of the
